

Forgery:

You bought a book that turned out to be a forgery.

Delete your last collected book from your holdings and place it in the discard pile.

Theft:

A thief successfully came into your library's reading room and stole the last three books you bought.

Place them in the discard pile as they've disappeared from circulation forever!

Disaster:

A natural disaster occurred and you didn't get all of your books into a secure environment in time.

Delete the last five books you acquired from your holdings and place them in the discard pile.

Donor:

You've acquired a wealthy benefactor.

Select one book you need for your collection that's still available in the pot. Add it to your holdings for free!

Discovery:

You found an item in your library you didn't know was there.

Select one book from the available books originating in your country and add it to your collection for free!